4 EXHIBITION SECTORS

Livestock production and its sectors

Presentations of animals, breeders' contest, livestock farming stakeholders and companies: this high-genetic-value sector promotes interaction between the general public and industry professionals.

Products from the regions of France, Overseas and the World

Where every region or country showcases its agricultural know-how and byproducts with the participation of smallholders, restaurants, tasting stands and more.

Crop and plant sectors

From major crop farming through to gardening and fruit farming – this sector will showcase the wide range of food and non-food farm productions.

Agricultural services and professions

Institutional entities, service companies, research organisations, addressing every issue related to the day-to-day lives of farmers: jobs, training, insurance, banking, the environment, new technology and more.

THE SHOW IS DOING ITS PART. JOIN US!

As a major event and social stakeholder, the Paris International Agricultural Show is conscious of its social, societal and environmental impact. Organisers, exhibitors, visitors, service providers, partners: everyone contributes to the event's success!

Let's adopt the SIA'ttitude together!

FOLLOWING THE SIA'TTITUDE MEANS SAYING...

YES
TO RESPECTING ANIMALS

TO A SHOW THAT IS MORE ENVIRONMENTALLY-FRIENDLY

TO GETTING ON WELL TOGETHER

TO A COLLECTIVE CONTRIBUTION

More info on the SIA'ttitude and Show actions

I'M A VISITOR AND PLEDGE TO

- Show my ticket directly on my phone at the entrances
- Travel to the Show by public transport, by bike or on foot
- For animals' well-being, keep my distance and not disturb them
- Recycle at the Show: use yellow bins for plastic bottles, cans, trays and cardboard cutlery and the ashtrays around the site if I smoke
- If I consume alcohol on site, drink responsibly
- Treat others, equipment and property with respect
- When speaking with an exhibitor or farmer, be constructive and positive at all times

I'M AN EXHIBITOR AND PLEDGE TO

- Recycle at the Show
- Take an eco-design approach to my stand where possible
- Use reusable and not single-use tableware
- If I provide giveaways, offer items designed to last and produced sustainably
- Observe rules regarding noise pollution out of respect for my neighbours and animals
- Comply with Article R.3353-2 of the French Public Health Code which bans serving alcohol to people visibly under the influence of excess alcohol
- If there is any food left at the end of the Show, donate it to the food banks making collections throughout the event
- When speaking with a visitor, be constructive and positive at all times

THE TRADE VISITOR JOURNEY AT THE PARIS INTERNATIONAL AGRICULTURAL SHOW

The trade visitor journey at the Paris International Agricultural Show just gets better every year. It highlights the participation of exhibitors whose main reason for coming is to do trade all around the event, and more specifically in Halls 1 and 4. Today it is made up of five key points:

AGRI'METIERS

Conferences and other activities over this 500-sq.m area for anyone looking for more precise information and tailored guidance along their trade visit.

AGRI'TECH

In 2024, 40 exhibitors showcased their solutions to support the transformation of the entire French agricultural sector's value chain over this area covering 600 sq.m.

100% TRADE NETWORKING

A purely B2B focus with conferences, corporate events, networking opportunities and trade events.

THE PROFESSIONALS' VILLAGE

The Professionals' Village in Hall 1 will host a number of solutions for trade visitors, including demonstrations of agricultural machinery and equipment, services, genetics and more. Created in 2017, the Village has proved extremely successful.

THE CONCOURS GÉNÉRAL AGRICOLE

Introduced in 1870, the Concours Général Agricole is held each year to single out and reward excellence in animal genetics and French regional produce. It encourages livestock farmers and producers, supports their economic growth, contributes to the training of future industry professionals and offers consumers touchstones to guide them in their choices. Six rings are spread over the show to host the animal competitions, while over in Hall 7.2 the product and wine tastings are held, behind closed doors, with over 7,000 judges.
